Bottom line: Armed conflict and terrorism are the most acute risks, alongside major public-health, child-safety and cyber incidents.

Conflict escalation: Lebanon’s ceasefire remains fragile, with continuing fatalities and Israeli operations against Hezbollah. Russian strikes on Kyiv caused deaths and spillover concerns after a missile reportedly crashed in Poland. ReliefWeb; NATO News

Terror attacks: A Moscow restaurant bombing killed three and injured 21; a car bomb wounded at least 11 in Colombia shortly before the presidential election. SCMP; Al Jazeera

Public health: Ebola is spreading in the DRC, threatening children and neighbouring states. ReliefWeb

Child safety: Critical signals include reported rising child sexual abuse in Pakistan and Nigeria, while UNICEF reports severe child casualties in Iran. UNICEF News

Cybersecurity: A Coldcard flaw was linked to a major bitcoin theft; VMware and Gitea vulnerabilities create enterprise compromise risks. The Hacker News
